2024 ANNUAL REPORT ON POLITICAL PARTY REVENUES RELEASED

The 2024 Annual Revenue Return on Political Party Revenues was released to the public and tabled in the Yukon Legislature today by the Chief Electoral Officer of the Yukon, Maxwell Harvey. This report, submitted in accordance with section 398 of the Elections Act, summarizes the reported revenue received by registered political parties for the 2024 calendar year.

The report details the total revenue received by Yukon's four registered political parties. It reports monetary contributions, in-kind contributions, and total other revenues. The report also contains the names of contributors who donated more than $250 in monetary or in-kind contributions.

In the 2024 calendar year, the four political parties reported $217,120 in total revenues, including $173,851 in contributions (monetary and in-kind) from 501 contributors. The average monetary contribution amount reported in 2024 was $341.

The report is available at electionsyukon.ca

Fundraising by political parties is an important element in our democracy to support organizing, promotion, and campaigning. It is also an opportunity for citizens to participate in the political process by supporting organizations. Proactive financial disclosure requirements, such as the annual revenue return, are designed to ensure political financing is fair and transparent.
